

Q. India is a Sovereign, Socialist Democratic Republic. [5 words]

Sovereign :- India has adopted constitution made by its constituent Assembly on 26th Nov 1949 and has also enacted some ~~provisions~~ articles related to citizenship, parliament & election.

This adoption of constitution made India sovereign and also give freedom to India ~~for~~ to make its own rules.

Socialist :- In India there is equal distribution of resources and opportunities among people. Every one is equal before the eye of law.

There are some provisions of reservation which is provided by constⁿ for weaker section.

Democratic :- On 15 Aug 1947 India got independence from British Raj and became democratic, where supremacy of constitution was given importance.

Republic :- In India head of state will be elected which make India Republic as there is no monarchy.