Q. Kunwar Singh [100 words]

Ans. Kunwar Singh was the chief leader and military commander who fought from Bihar (Jagdishpur) in the revolt of 1857. Kunwar Singh was joined by armed soldiers. Moreover, he led this band of armed soldiers. He was accompanied and supported by Amar Singh. The main cause of raising revolt was the discontentment of zamindari system in Bihar, and he was also deprived of his states by British. Kunwar Singh played a crucial role in revolt of 1857. In spite of being defeated his ^{defeat} emphasised the feeling of 'nationalism'.
