

Q. Art / Architecture during Delhi sultanate. (125 words)

- During Delhi Sultanate Indo-Islamic architecture developed which changed the whole outlook & beautified the monument & also gave strength to wear heavy payload. (Arch & dome).

- Some of the famous monuments constructed during Delhi sultanate are as follow - built

- |                     |                       |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
| (1) Qutubudin Aibak | → Qutub-Islam mosque  |
|                     | → Adhai din ka jhopra |
|                     | → Qutub minar         |
| (2) Iltutmish       | → Qutub minar         |
| (3) Balban          | → Lal mahal. (delhi)  |
| (4) Alauddin Khilji | → Alai-darwaja        |

- Music → during delhi sultanate instruments like Tabla, sitar were introduced, Amir Khusrao was a famous figure in this field.

- Books, ~~auto~~ (administrative, musical, autobiography) were written.

o → Art & painting - showing human body parts in painting was restricted, ~~rather~~ Nature paintings were given more consideration ✓

o bright colours were used

o a special box pattern ruled over the paintings.

o mostly painting of Sultan's are seen.

* New techniques & technology were compiled to and a gradual evolution of art & architecture is ~~was~~ was seen.

BING