150 words

Ans. United Nation Security Council (UNSC) which is an ~~organ~~ principle organ of UNO, with having an objective to maintain world peace and security and the Headquarter is situated at New York.

UNSC have 15 members

- At the time of UNO established in 24 October 1945 there were total 52 members and having 5 permanent members.
- Today we have 193 UNO members and still we have 5 permanent members.

So, In the current context, yes there is a need of democratisation. There is a scheme where 6 members ~~were~~ are going to permanent. Germany and Japan are fixed, India is most probably become a permanent member.

In the Indian Context

1. India is the world's largest population
2. India is a founder member of UN
3. India participate in different peace-keeping mission.
4. Indo-pacific, influence of china

In today's context is a highest growing economy, and doing major work in welfare and peace-keeping mission. Hence India's tremendous ~~work~~ work is countable in the world's eyes.
