Q. Explain why India has adopted the parliamentary form of government? - Rajni More

Ans:- India has adopted parliamentary form of government in 1861.

Reasons for adopting parliamentary form of government

- Less conflict ✓
- Unity in diversity ✓
- More flexible ✓
- Change in leadership. ✓

Less conflict :- Parliamentary form of government is less conflict as compared to other forms of government because it works in two parts i.e., at central level and state level. ✓

Unity in diversity :- It provides unity in diversity amongs all Indians because the government is elected by the people, to the people and for the people. ✓

More flexible :- Parliamentary form of government is more flexible as decision taking power is easy. ✓

In parliamentary form of government changes in leadership changes by the times. As compared to other forms of govt. such as british form of govt. the leadership changes but as a hierarchy changes.

Thus, parliamentary form of government is proven to be success as compared to other forms of governments.
