

Q Discuss India-Nepal Relationship? How growing Chinese Influence in Nepal is affecting it? (150w).

Ans India and Nepal are two close ✓ border countries that share a great bond of friendship & cooperation, they both are a common member of SAARC ✓
as well.

Below mentioned points discuss the relationship of both the countries in detail:-

① Treaty of peace & friendship :- India & ✓ Nepal signed the treaty of peace and friendship in 1950 to meet the economic interest of the nations &
free trade.

→ Goods from Nepal are free traded, but its not vice-versa. ✓

② The phrase "Rohi-Beti ka rishta" which ✓ means. food & Marriage, depicts great historical bond of both the nations
and Mutual Trust among the two.

③ India supported Nepal in Maovist
insurgency in 2006.

→ This close relationship is affected by China in the following ways:- ✓

① China is somehow trying to distance Napolese Government from India.
→ This will meet China's strategical interest in seperating nations.

② Great blockade from Kathmandu to Beijing China.

→ Now Nepal is connected to China more, than India.

Whereas, India is still trying to maintain the relationship with its close border Nations.

→ Prime Minister of India (Narendra Modi) had his 5th visit to Nepal in 2022, and 1st visit to Lumbini, by invitation of Nepal's PM on the occasion of Buddha Purnima.
