Q. "India should get a permanent seat at United Nation security Council." Comment [150 words]

Ans → India is the founding member of UNSC and has actively participated in most of the UN peace keeping missions. India has been elected for 8th time as the non permanent member of UNSC.

India should get a permanent seat at UNSC due to the following reasons -

- ① India has overtaken UK and is now the 5th largest economy.
- ② India is world's largest democracy. It comprises of 17-18% of world's population.
- ③ It is the member of most of the export control regime.
