

Q.7 Enumerate impact of globalisation on Indian youth. (200 words).

Ans) Globalisation means the interconnection of the different countries of the world so as to enhance trade, economy & provide services among the nations involved. No doubt, it has a huge impact on our society as it has helped create a new era.

India is considered to be the youngest nation in the world with around 60%.

Its population below the age of 50 years. Our Indian youth ~~exceeds~~, with the impact of globalisation, ~~has~~ with has gained immense popularity & fame. Not only in India, but abroad, we are on top positions of MNC's of big firms.

Indian youth is considered to be a hybrid. Though from the outer appearance we have adopted western culture but our ~~roots~~ roots are Indian culture. In abroad also, various communities with immense joy & pleasure celebrate Indian festivals.

But with the impact of globalisation, it has also help divert the attention of youth to some social problems. Nowadays, we can see many NGO's working for social cause.

In which 90% of them are youth. They are also empowered by the responses gained by the citizens as globalisation helps in changing the orthodox mindset.

It is clearly evident that earlier girls & women were not allowed to move out of their houses for work. But globalisation has helped women empower. The IT sector in our country gives a large no. of jobs to girls & women. It is mostly dominated by female workers. The call centres have developed, which provides Therefore, globalisation has helped nurture the Indian youth in many ways. Also, it has paved fruitful path for the young generation of our society.